HEALTH OFFICER/SANITARY REPORTS

-Reinspected Flirt Sushi and same was satisfactory;

-Dairy Queen another unfounded anonymous complaint;

-Met with owner of Marc's Deli who is catering the Allendale Fire Department's 100th Anniversary celebration;

-Atrium Nursing Home – sampled a pre-made salad that is prepared outside and brought in and it tested high in bacteria. Upon reinspection it was satisfactory.

-Mashi Sushi was conditional. They weren't as bad as in the past, but still had several repeat violations. Once again, Sushi was being prepared in the kitchen without gloves and summonses were issued.

-Inspected Crestwood Lake and found same satisfactory. Discussed a number of issues with the new lake director.

-Dog Bite at 31 Cedar Drive. Dog bit the owner who no longer wants to keep it because of its aggressive behavior.. Dog will be quarantened and confined for ten days, released, and probably put down.

-Darla's Porch took the Food Manager's Course and obtained their License. Evidently they will be opening some time in June;

-P&M Concession stand at Crestwood Lake is satisfactory;

-Inspected Hillside School and they were satisfactory;

OLD/NEW BUSINESS

-Dog/Cat Licensing

Linda Morgan and Robin Iversen want to talk to Pam regarding the licensing of pets at the free rabies clinic. No money will be collected and only checks will be accepted as payment.

The free rabies clinic will be held Saturday, November 6th 1:00-3:00 p.m.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT
